Business Wire

New York, New York — October 15, 2012 — Reynolds Group Holdings Limited (“Reynolds Group”) and its wholly-owned subsidiaries, Reynolds Group Issuer LLC, Reynolds Group Issuer Inc. and Reynolds Group Issuer (Luxembourg) S.A. (together, the “Reynolds Issuers”) announced the expiration of the previously announced cash tender offer for any and all of the Reynolds Issuers’ U.S. dollar-denominated 7.75% Senior Secured Notes due 2016 (the “Dollar Notes”) on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Reynolds Issuers’ Offer to Purchase dated September 14, 2012 (the “Statement”).

As of 12:01 a.m., New York City time, on October 13, 2012, $777,489,000 aggregate principal amount of Dollar Notes, representing 69.11% of the Dollar Notes previously outstanding, were validly tendered (and not validly withdrawn) in the tender offer, all of which were accepted for purchase and settled on September 28, 2012, the Early Payment Date (as defined in the Statement). No additional tenders of Dollar Notes were received after the Early Payment Date.

Credit Suisse Securities (USA) LLC acted as Dealer Manager for the tender offer and D.F. King & Co., Inc. acted as Information Agent and Tender Agent for the tender offer.

This press release is for informational purposes only and does not constitute an offer to buy or the solicitation of an offer to sell the Dollar Notes. The tender offer with respect to the Dollar Notes was made only pursuant to the Statement and related materials. Noteholders and investors should read carefully the Statement and related materials because they contain important information, including the various terms of and conditions to such tender offer.

Forward-Looking Statements:

This press release may contain “forward-looking statements.” Forward-looking statements include statements regarding the goals, beliefs, plans or current expectations of Reynolds Group, taking into account the information currently available to our management. Forward-looking statements are not statements of historical fact. For example, when we use words such as “believe,” “anticipate,” “expect,” “estimate,” “intend,” “should,” “would,” “could,” “may,” “will” or other words that convey uncertainty of future events or outcomes, we are making forward-looking statements. While management has based any forward-looking statements contained herein on its current expectations, the information on which such expectations were based may change. These forward-looking statements rely on a number of assumptions concerning future events and are subject to a number of risks, uncertainties, and other factors, many of which are outside of our control that could cause actual results to materially differ from such statements. Such uncertainties, risks and assumptions include, but are not limited to: risks related to acquisitions, including completed and future acquisitions, such as the risks that we may be unable to complete an acquisition in the timeframe anticipated, on its original terms, or at all, or that we may not be able to achieve some or all of the benefits that we expect to achieve from such acquisitions, including risks related to integration of our acquired businesses; risks related to the future costs of energy, raw materials and freight; risks related to our substantial indebtedness and our ability to service our current and future indebtedness; risks related to our hedging activities which may result in significant losses and in period-to-period earnings volatility; risks related to our suppliers of raw materials and any interruption in our supply of raw materials; risks related to downturns in our target markets; risks related to increases in interest rates which would increase the cost of servicing our debt; risks related to dependence on the protection of our intellectual property and the development of new products; risks related to exchange rate fluctuations; risks related to the consolidation of our customer bases, competition and pricing pressure; risks related to the impact of a loss of one of our key manufacturing facilities; risks related to our exposure to environmental liabilities and potential changes in legislation or regulation; risks related to complying with environmental, health and safety laws or as a result of satisfying any liability or obligation imposed under such laws; risks related to changes in consumer lifestyle, eating habits, nutritional preferences and health-related and environmental concerns that may harm our business and financial performance; risks related to restrictive covenants in the Dollar Notes and our other indebtedness which could adversely affect our business by limiting our operating and strategic flexibility; risks related to our dependence on key management and other highly skilled personnel; and risks related to our pension plans.

Given these risks and uncertainties, you are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date hereof. Except as required by law, we undertake no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statement, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise. All subsequent written and oral forward-looking statements attributable to us or to persons acting on our behalf are expressly qualified in their entirety by the cautionary statements referred to above.
